Dear Sir:

During August each year the U.S. Naval Justice School conducts a two-weeks' seminar for approximately 150 Naval Reserve officer lawyers who come from nearly every state east of the Mississippi River. This year the seminar will be held during the period 6 August to 17 August.

It is our purpose each year to offer these officers a refresher course in military law. In addition, we include in our program guest speakers who lecture on naval and international affairs subjects in order that these officers may be kept abreast of the military and political posture of the United States.

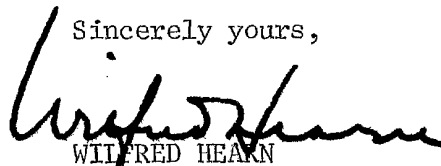

This year we desire to include in our program a lecture on the Central Intelligence Agency. It is felt that a lecture on the role of the Central Intelligence Agency would be most interesting and very beneficial to the officers in attendance.

All officers attending will have a clearance for Confidential.

Usually we have fifty-minute periods for all lectures. Of the fifty minutes, a certain amount of time may be allotted, at the speaker's discretion, for discussion.

Therefore, it is respectfully requested that a speaker be made available to present a lecture on The Role of the CIA on either 7 or 8 August 1962. If you find it feasible to authorize someone to participate in our program, we, at the Justice School, will be most delighted.

Sincerely yours,

WILFRED HEARN
Captain, USN
Commanding Officer
